

Consent for using video/still images of your Child(ren)

Tsukushi Daycare, Inc. hosts two different web pages. One is open to public (<http://tsukushidaycare.com>) and the other one is designated only to the active members of our daycare. (<http://tsukushidaycare.com/customers/index.php>)

The purpose of this member's web page is to provide the following information to our customers:

- Various notifications, such as daycare schedule, any changes to the activities, event announcement.
- Day to day operation of the daycare, children's progress
- Sharing child raising hints and tips
- Our policy

Occasionally, we take photographs and/or videos of your children or children's art work. We may use these images on our member's website which is shared only to the active members of our daycare via member's webpage. We will never place children's full name to any of the images. We may rarely place children's first name if it is absolutely relevant to the context. (ie; so and so won the first place at local art contest.)

If we are to ever to use your children's images on our external web site, we will be asking for permission for each of these pictures separately. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to ask.
